

Mission

Telco Global is a company that provides architecture and infrastructure design services for telecommunications networks, as well as services in the area of advice and technical support in an agile and comprehensive way, with the highest quality and guarantee for its clients. The Company constantly strives to prepare human capital, made up of a multidisciplinary team that advises and contributes its knowledge and experience. It helps simplify customer decision-making, thus contributing to the growth, prestige and competitiveness of organizations. It encourages creativity by applying the best ideas in the constant search for quality, and in this way, overcome the increasingly growing needs of the market.

Vision

To be a leading and excellent company, that will promote top quality projects and solutions for the telecommunications industry, based on international norms and standards, with highly qualified personnel, which will allow it to become a reference center worldwide.

Values

Based on the ethical principles on which our company is supported:

- Honesty, perseverance, responsibility and innovation
- Immediate and personalized attention
- Orientation to continuous improvement and customer satisfaction
- Respect, trust and loyalty to the client
- Sense of belonging
- Innovation
- Human Resources Training
- Teamwork